

Melillo Consulting Acquires TD SYNEX's Micro Focus Support Business Tech Support Division

Acquired on December 2, 2022

Melillo Consulting, a technology solution provider that helps organizations power their business through technology, announced the acquisition of TD SYNEX's Micro Focus Support business, effective December 2, 2022. The agreement will enhance service support offerings for existing Micro Focus customers.

Melillo was selected to acquire the business based on their strong reputation in the industry and advanced expertise supporting Micro Focus customers. The acquisition represents a substantial increase in Micro Focus support accounts for Melillo.

"Through this acquisition, Micro Focus customers will benefit from additional support resources and greater breadth of end-to-end Micro Focus expertise while enjoying a seamless transition," said Mark Melillo, chairman of the board, Melillo. "We are eager to build on our established track record of providing a full suite of Micro Focus products backed by high levels of services to help Micro Focus customers improve their IT infrastructure and realize more value from their IT investment."

"As a trusted cross-portfolio partner of Micro Focus for several years, Melillo Consulting's acquisition of this Micro Focus support business has the potential to benefit customers in multiple ways," said Jon Kozimor, North America Channel Leader, Micro Focus. "We are thrilled to welcome the TD SYNEX Micro Focus Support employees to Melillo."

TD SYNEX's Micro Focus Support Desk head Andres Rustan will join Melillo as director of support operations, reporting to Melillo's VP and CTO of Professional Services Phil Bianco, to lead the combined Micro Focus business.

"I am excited to join Melillo as we bring the Micro Focus support offering under one roof with a provider that's known for its long history helping customers solve their most pressing IT challenges with Micro Focus," said Rustan. "Through this acquisition, Melillo will be poised to more profoundly deliver mission-critical technology and supporting services to customers to help them succeed in the digital economy."
